

Transfer from One Campus to Another

Degree-seeking students intending to transfer from one branch of Wilmington College to another must complete and return an internal transfer application to the Office of Admission. Students currently in non-degree seeking programs wishing to complete an internal transfer must follow the regular admission process for the campus to which they are applying.