

Accessibility and Disability Services

The office of Accessibility and Disability Services, provides advocacy and consultation services to students with disabilities and their faculty to ensure that a disability will not be a barrier to equal opportunity or access to educational programs and services. Documentation verifying disabilities is also reviewed by Accessibility and Disability Services, and formal recommendations for appropriate academic adjustments and other accommodations for students are made. Students may disclose a disability and receive accommodations at any point in their college career.