

AC342 : COST MANAGEMENT

A study of the processing and reporting of information for the purpose of decision making, planning and control, and performance evaluation. A major objective is to prepare students to use and critically evaluate cost management information. Topics covered include job order and activity-based costing, cost estimation, budgeting, and cost variance analysis. (only offered at Cincinnati branch campus)

Credits 4

Prerequisite Courses

AC231: MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING