

AG244 : AGRICULTURAL ECONOMICS

The focus of this course is on the role of agriculture in today's economic system. The course provides an understanding of the economic relationships coordinating the food and fiber industry. Economic principles and concepts are studied in terms of American agriculture. We are studying economics in agricultural vocabulary.

Credits 4