AG338 : COMPUTER APPLICATIONS IN AGRICULTURE II

This course is designed to build upon applications that were introduced in Computer Applications in Agriculture I. Excel skills are perfected to be applicable in agricultural business settings. Web page development and use of integrated farm management software are included as specific skills needed to run an agricultural business.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

AG138 and Junior or Senior standing